Society of St. Edmund Adds To Local Property

A new addition was made to the property of the Society of Saint Edmund this week with the purchase of the mansion and 15 acre estate of the late Henry Holt, noted publisher. It is located near the Burlington Country Club.

The 30 room house will be used as a seminary for young men entering the S.S.E.

The present owners, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Skelly sold the building and surrounding land to the order for a reported $50,000.

Construction of the mansion was begun in 1898 and the work was completed just one year before the founders of our College came to this country in 1904. At one time it was leased by John Jacob Astor. It was designed by Stanford White.

The house is four floors high and is surrounded by land which commands a view of the Green Mountains as well as the Adirondacks. Located on the property also is a swimming pool chipped out of solid rock.

It is expected that the new seminary will replace St. Mary's seminary at Randolph, Vermont. Very Reverend Jeremiah T. Purtil, S.S.E., has not made any official statement concerning the matter, however, since he was out of town this week.

Notice

It was announced this week by the College President, Very Rev. Francis Moriarty that the Thanksgiving vacation will begin after the last class or lab on November 24, and classes will resume on December 1, at 8:00 a.m.

In other words, the holiday has been extended by one day, November 30.

New Bishop To Be Consecrated Nov. 30

Most Rev. Bernard J. Flanagan, J.C.D., Bishop elect of the newly created Norwich diocese, will be consecrated in Burlington on Monday, November 30, and installed at Norwich, Wednesday, December 9. He was made an honorary doctor of laws by St. Michael's in 1951.

The Proctor born chancellor of the Burlington diocese has announced the dates and the names of the prelates who will take part in the two ceremonies.

Most Rev. Edward F. Ryan, bishop of Burlington, will consecrate his former chancellor in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at Burlington on November 30, the feast of St. Andrew.

As co-consecrators, Bishop Flanagan has chosen two former classmates at the North American College in Rome, Most Rev. Vincent S. Waters, bishop of Raleigh, N.C., and Most Rev. John P. Cody, auxiliary bishop of St. Louis.

Preacher for the ceremony of consecration will be Most Rev. Richard J.

Fifteen Seniors to be Inducted Into Delta Epsilon Sigma Soon

DEBATING TEAM PLAYS HOST TO U. OF VERMONT

Professor MURPHY shows the fine points of debating to several of the freshman members of the team as JOHN O'CONNOR and JOE McCANN who is helping to train the team look on.

On Wednesday, November 4, 1953 the Newman Debating Society competed in the second of a series of four Tournaments being held with the University of Vermont, Middlebury and Dartmouth College. This time St. Michael's was the host.

When the final results were in we found that thus far this year they have won four debates, while losing the same number. The Newman Debating Society holds wins over UVM, Middlebury and Dartmouth.

The question under debate was, Resolved: That the United States should adopt a policy of Free Trade. The affirmative was up held by John Paul Kane and Joseph McCann, while the negative was defended by Richards, Gelina and Peter Meagher.

John O'Connor was Novice Debate Coach. After the Tournament he said, "I am very pleased with the work done by the novices. In a few years I am sure they will be listed among St. Michael's best."

Club President John Carroll, who also helped to train the novice announced that next Wednesday the Varsity will travel to Dartmouth College.

Prof. Edward Murphy is moderator of the Newman Debating Society.

Conn. Club To Join Ball

Conn. Club of St. Michael's have been invited to join a committee for the Catholic Inter-collegiate Charity Ball.

The Ball is to be held at the Hartford Club-Hartford Conn.

Friday November 27th Profit from the dance will go to Arch. Chocuse of Hartford-for charity purpose.

St. Joseph College is West Hartford Conn.-is chairman for this year.

Induction ceremonies were planned this week for the fifteen incoming members of the Delta Epsilon Sigma who were chosen by the administration of St. Michael's. The honored seniors will be received into the honor society sometime after the beginning of the new year.

Chosen for their proficiency in academic pursuits and outstanding marks, the men will add to the swelling ranks of the local chapter, Alpha Nu, which each year are

'KNIGHTLIGHTS' STILL A HIT

For the third consecutive year, "Knightlights" took to the road to present its annual benefit show for the underprivileged children at the Brandon State School and The Weeks School in Vergennes.

Sponsored by the Sociology Club, twenty Michaelmen presented an hour long revue which included accordion sense and nonsense by Tony Agostinelli and the Dead End Kids. Bob Bolster, Chris Bogaiges, Bob Donoghue and Agostinelli sang an extended version of "Eh Cumpari" and broadcast a special skit from WSSE.

Valdini, the Great, added his sleight of hand routine with his usual finesse. Vocal selections were rendered by Dick Krug and Les Weiand presented several piano selections. Jim Dempsey, drummer with the Nu-Tones, provoked audience participation with his four minute drum break.

An unexpected feature of the Brandon show was the revival of last year's "It's in the Book" routine. Pandemonium broke loose both on-stage and in the audience when Mickey Spillane presented a rhumba solo without castanets.

T.J. Nichols, President of the Sociology Club, headed the committee which included Bob Bolster, Mickey Spillane, Carmine Parella, Paul Kelly and Leo Allard. Nichols also announced this week that another show will be presented for the orphans of the Don Bosco School and St. Joseph's Orphanage here in Burlington later in the month.

Anyone interested in joining these benefit shows is urged to contact Nichols on Ryan 1.

Eight ROTC Cadets Chosen

A Wing Review was held on October 27, in honor of eight cadets in the St. Michael's Corps of Cadets who have attained the distinction of being chosen as distinguished military cadets.

This honor has been tendered to them because of their position in the upper third of their class, and because of their extensive proficiency in matters of leadership and drill.

The cadets this honored were: Louis Siclari, John Carroll, John Quinn, Frank Falcetti, Peter Chiacchieri, Paul Landry, James McDonald, and Carmen Parrella.

As a tribute to their success, the entire Cadet Wing passed in review for the eight cadets.

Upon graduation and commissioning in June, these cadets will be given the honor of Distinguished Military Graduation from the Air Force ROTC program.

Further information regarding the induction ceremonies which are expected to take place in February will be carried at a later date in the MICHAELMAN.

The members of the Class of 1954 who were selected to be honored by being elected into the national honor society include: William Wigmore, Elmhurst, New York; William Levins, Rutland, Vermont; Peter Chiacchieri, Roxbury, Mass.; Paul McMahon, Burlington, Vermont; Maurice Mongeon, Winooski, Vermont; Cleveland Williams, New York, N.Y.; Francis J. Quinlan, Winooski, Vermont; James Starkey, Brooklyn, N.Y.; John Menard, Massena, N.Y.; Lawrence Diette, Troy, Vermont; Richard DiLoranzo, North Adams, Mass.; Carmine Parrella, Watertown, Mass.; Leo Allard, Woonsocket, R.I.; Bernard Noucher, Highgate Center, Vermont; John O'Connor, Springfield, Mass.

President's Day

Nov. 16 Holiday

Monday, November 16, will be celebrated on campus as President's Day. There are no classes.

Ever since the founding of St. Michael's, November 16, the feast of St. Edmund, has been set aside here to honor our president and the patron of the order that bears his name.

VERY REV. F. E. MARIARTY

This year, the students, with the seniors and faculty in academic garb, will attend the solemn high mass at 10 in Austin Hall. Attendance is obligatory.

After the mass, there will be a faculty reception in the library. Very Rev. Francis E. Moriarty, S.S.E., ninth president of St. Michael's, will be greeted by faculty and their wives.

The holiday has special significance for members of the Society of St. Edmund which was founded at Pontigny, France in 1843.

The remains of St. Edmund are preserved, uncorrupted, at Pontigny. It was to that shrine that St. Edmund Rich, archbishop of Canterbury, went in exile, rather than bow in

"...but the greatest of these is charity."

In these words, Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, spoke of the virtue of Christian charity.

Michaelmen, perhaps unknowingly as a group, have established an enviable reputation for charitable works. The "Night of Knights" shows several years ago represented a campus wide effort to help the Burlington Boys Club. The student body purchased a station wagon three years ago for Father Ziter's missionary work among the Negroes in Alabama. The local Red Cross can point to the fact that we have never failed to top our blood drive quotas - and who remembers that afternoon two years ago when we smashed the national record in our blood drive turnout?

Put what of charity at the individual level? What of the little things that Michaelmen do that never find their way into print? Again, perhaps unknowingly as a group, we have done that too.

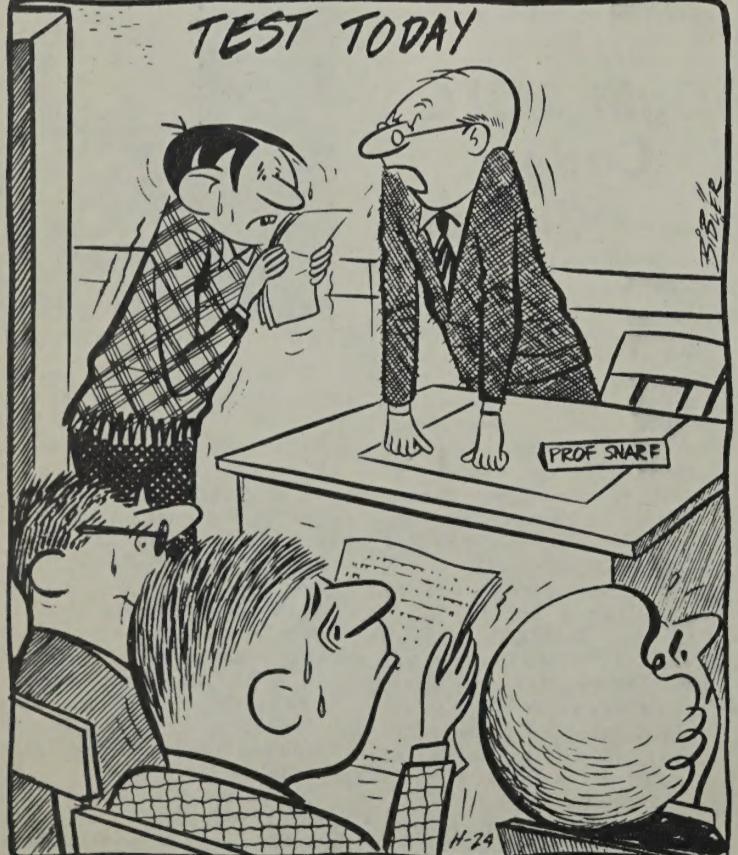

Every year Michaelmen have contributed through individual mite boxes. And what is a mite box. Soon you'll be receiving one.

Mite boxes are those little boxes into which you throw those few loose pennies. When times are good, an occasion nickel or dime. It stays in your drawer. No one ever sees it. No one ever asks you how much you're giving. It's conceivable that no one will ever thank you individually. No one will ever know what your individual total was, much less of those two or three sacrifices that total represents. (And isn't that the point where charity begins?) But you will know.

TEST TODAY

Letter to the editor,

In the name of the Sociology Club, may I express my sincere gratitude to all those who consented to perform at Brandon and Weeks Schools, and devoting so much time and effort in the execution of that generous act.

The Talent Show was most cordially received at both institutions, which should be of great consolation to all of you.

The members of the cast include, Leo Allard & Paul Kelly, directors, Bob Bolster, Tony Agostinelli, Val Forcier, Jim Dempsey, Les Weiand, Bob Donohue, Cris Bogiages, Pete Spailene and Dick Krug. It is certainly a pleasure to find such wonderful cooperation.

Sincerely,
Thomas J. Nichols, Pres.

Star Time

Ray Anthony, whose record of Dragnet is the biggest orchestral selling record of recent months, is one former Glenn Miller sideman who will not be seen in the upcoming film version of the late maestro's life. The young man, who joined the group in 1940 and left to go into the Navy in 1942, is too busy with his own band to take time off to do a stint in the films. After his four-year hitch in the service, the leader took up his trumpet and formed his own band, playing the top spots in the country. He is Capitol Records' number one band, and previous to Dragnet, his biggest hit was Nevertheless.

Talking about Dragnet, there's a plethora of recordings from television, following the same pattern set by all the discs based on film themes in the last few years. There's Melancholy Serenade from the Jackie Gleason show; Johnny Desmond etched Danger from the action program of the same name; and to lighten it all up now, there's Mr. Peepers from the comedy half-hour starring Wally Cox.

Look for an upsurge on the dancing front. The National Ballroom Operators of America are getting behind the move to get more people on the dance floors. There'll be a special contest during the summer, with loads of prizes for the best dancers; and a National Dance Week, promoted by Down Beat Magazine, with tie-ins with television and radio programs.

Eddy Arnold won Down Beat's first country and western disc jockey poll. Over 500 deejays were polled, and Arnold won the male singer's division; Kitty Wells, the female; Pee Wee King, the large band; Homer and Jethro, the small units, and the Carlisles, the vocal group slot. Biggest c&w record was Your Cheating Heart; and the best tune, Crying in the Chapel.

Coast Turns . . . Eddie Cantor does a little better than the late Al Jolson, who warbled for Larry Parks in his life story. Cantor, who does the songlog for Keefe Brasselle in the film, "The Eddie Cantor Story," gets credit in an introductory prologue. Probably your folks remember better than you do, but Walt Disney films have inspired more song hits than any other source. Way back in 1933, Frank Churchill of the Disney staff knocked out, for "The Three Little Pigs" film, Who's Afraid of the Big, Bad Wolf, and then until his death several years ago, did more than 30 hit tunes. His biggest success was "Snow White," in which he had eight hit numbers.

Jazz Scene . . . Look for some action on the English Musicians Union, which has banned American Band appearances in Britain. Sensational tours just finished by Lionel Hampton and Stan Kenton, have the fans in an uproar. More than 3,000 Kentonites took special trains and boats from England, to attend the concerts by the maestro in Ireland . . . incidentally, Kenton cancelled his scheduled tour with Duke Ellington, claiming that it was all a mistake, and that both were too big to do joint concerts . . . Dixieland is still strong, a recent bash on the Coast bringing in a smash $18,000.

Mission Crusade Club Active

The Mission Crusade is one of the many active clubs at St. Michael's College. This organization in past years has done a great deal to raise money for different causes, and its members have volunteered their services to do so.

This year once again members of the Mission Crusade have volunteered to take up the collections at the Sunday Masses. In the past the total receipts from these collections were sent to the Southern Missions. This year the policy has been changed and the receipts from the collections are to stay here on campus, and the money will be put into appropriate funds.

The main object this year is to set up a chapel fund. The purpose of the chapel fund is to try to raise money to help build the much needed chapel. All Michaelman are aware of this fact, and it is for this reason that the greater part of the money will go toward this cause.

The rest of the money will be used to replenish supplies in the present chapel. One of the most costly items used in the chapel are vestments, (realizing their constant use and their cost it has been thought that what little is left can go toward replenishing these items.) The last items to be taken into consideration are candles and flowers. These are important and essential to the functioning of the chapel, so the remainder will go to the support of these items.

The Mission Crusade realizes that this is a big order, and will do its best to support it, and the club also knows that every Michaelman will do his best to support this program.

"---Just what it says---" If---of---what---is---?" If you had read the assignment that question would be perfectly clear!"

FLEMING MOVIE SERIES OFFERS WIDE AND INTERESTING VARIETY

An invitation was extended this week to all Michaelmen to become members of the Fleming Museum Association and participating in its many activities.

Upon joining the Association, for the sum of one dollar, a student is given the opportunity of enjoying during the coming year a selection of outstanding motion pictures, American and foreign, besides listening in on a concert and a lecture.

The program this year is divided into two series: "A" and "B". Series "A" will be comprised of seven English speaking American pictures, a film-lecture, and a concert.

Series "B" features seven foreign films in various languages with English subtitles. Everyone is invited to join one or both of these series.

Fees for either one of these series is $1.00 for students.

This is a saving of $2.00 in the first series and $1.00 in the second. All memberships are for one year beginning September 1.

In addition to the above mentioned program, a membership includes an invitation to the opening teas of several of the art exhibits. At that time it will often be possible to meet the artists informally, as well as to enjoy pleasant social gathering and refreshment.

By taking a membership in the Association you make it possible to provide free educational and entertaining movie programs for the children.

Larry Viola, Photography Editor of the 1954 Shield, has issued a call for informal snapshots of campus life for publication in the Yearbook. Every year 40 or 50 pictures are used to illustrate the less formal side of campus activity. Pictures in past years have run the gamut from shots of pajama clad Michaelmen brushing their teeth to pictures of the boys enjoying "that last sip of Lipton tea."

Everyone is eligible to submit informal snapshots. If you have any pictures you'd like to have run in this year's Shield, submit them to Larry Viola in Ryan 316 or to John Cauley and John Donahue in Ryan 206.

Chess Club Reactivated

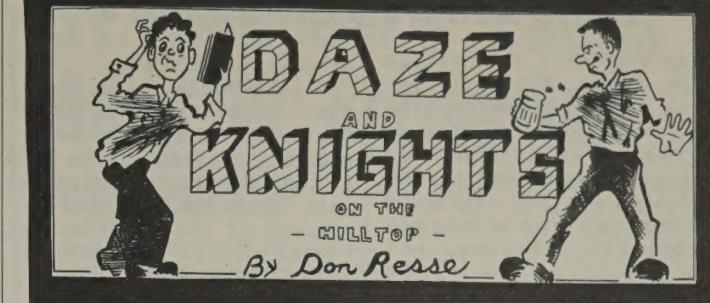

On campus this semester we find a new club trying to reestablish itself after a leave of absence of a couple of years. The Chess Club is in the process of making itself known and liked among students and faculty members as well. The club became inactive two years ago after several years of great prosperity during which both students and quite a few faculty members matched wits for the championship in the annual tournaments.

Salvatore Carbone and Arthur Lavallee, both skilled chessmen, have done extensive work in reviving the club in conjunction with Father Ralph Linnehan, moderator of the Chess Club. Paul O'Herin, Bill Logue, Ernest Boutote, W. Badger, Cleveland Williams, Eugene Dugas, J. Bernier, Don Wehmeyer, D. Dery, C. Foley, J. Fitzsimmons, Dr. Lemaire, and Dr. Cittarella are among other students and professors who have showed interest in the success of the club.

The club has had two very promising meetings and although officers have not yet been elected, a slate is to be voted upon in the near future. Presently the club is trying to organize and is achieving its goal on a very informal level which is quite an asset in itself. Meetings are held every Wednesday at seven o'clock in College Hall, room 46.

A special invitation is extended to each and every student and faculty member, who is at all interested in the game, to attend the next meeting, and see for himself what amusement and self satisfaction can result from a hot game of chess. You don't have to PAWN your watch to attend, for the object of the club is to provide entertainment for its members. This is one club where you can get ROOKED and still have fun. Additional information can be obtained by contacting Salvatore Carbone at St. Leo's Arthur Lavallee at Ryan 130 or Father Ralph Linnehan at Prevel Hall.

HAVING THUS FAR escaped the threats and clenched fists of our fellow students we initiate our second onslaught on the mentality of the Mikemen. It begins thus:

WITCH is which? . . . Over heard at the Halloween dance, "When did you learn to dance? . . . I know it was tonight but what time?" At the same shining one guy's doll was such a good hooper twelve different guys cut in on him . . . they say he was tapped so often he resembled a keg at a clambake.

Not that anyone minds the long line outside the Chow Hall in the morning but who were the two Hilltoppers who started collecting firewood???

JOHN KILKEARY speaks from off campus . . . Not a cent in my jeans, not a crust of bread; "Twould be better if I were dead. But no it wouldn't, I most forgot... Would cost quite a bit for a buryin' lot.

THE OUTING CLUB'S hayride takes place November 6 . . . Everyone seems to be enthused . . . therefore we feel safe in predicting that there will be much spirit in evidence . . . Are you lava lovely? . . . KIRK, the senior portrait photog spent fifteen minutes last Thurs. repairing a broken shutter . . . Well, a camera can only take so much . . . These seniors . . . Ug!

SLEEPERS ARISE . . . What's this deal about the proposed S.M.C. radio station??? Brother, I can hear it now . . . Time, 8:09 A.M. . . Place, my sack . . . Ever so softly a dial is turned and we hear a melodic voice whispering . . . "Either get up and get to class in one minute you lunkhead or take a F.A." . . . No, No . . . this will never do.

THE KNIGHTS AND KNAVES will show movies Tuesday night in S. 107 . . . admission 10¢ a head . . . just think, if it were Saturday night most guys would have to fork over a buck.

ROSS WARREN, the editor of THE MICHAELMAN, seeking talented journalists . . . Yeah, I know, this column seems to indicate that he can't find any . . . that reminds me . . .

I love the MICHAELMAN, I think it's swell
And when it's issued I run pell-mell
To scan DAZE and KNIGHTS, to read the ads.
To note all the news and take up the fads.
I praise the paper and scorn those who laugh;
I'm really most loyal; (I'm on the staff).

ST. JOHN'S gets this week's cheers for walking off with the prize for high percentage of blood donors . . . Altogether 142 pints (of blood) were collected.

SAY, IF ANYBODY wants a date contact LOU (downtown) SICLARI. He has the phone book memorized and knows more about numbers than Alexander Graham Bell. How many caught that item about the Vice-President of the Planned Parenthood Association having triplets???? What a terrific handicap for them . . . not knowing which one was planned . . . Freshman, "Just figured a way to double the amount of Coke sold here" . . . Mrs. Companion, "How?" . . . Frosh, "Fill up the cups" . . . Hold on, it's almost finished.

CONTRIBUTIONS of material and suggestions for this column will be appreciated and may be left at Ryan 105. Look for the third installment of DAZE and KNIGHTS in the next issue of the MICHAELMAN. . . O.K., it's finished.

Fellowships For Seniors

The Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, Missouri, invites applications for the third class (1954) of Graduate Fellowships for college seniors and recent graduates who are preparing themselves for a career of college teaching, and are planning to enter graduate school in September, 1954, for their first year of graduate study.

The Foundation welcomes applicants from the fields of Natural Sciences, Social Sciences, Humanities and other fields of specialization to be found in the undergraduate college.

President Very Reverend Francis E. Moriarty has named Mr. Robert A. Hebert as the Liaison Officer to work with the Danforth Foundation on the selection of candidates. These appointments are primarily "a relationship of encouragement," carrying a promise of financial aid within prescribed conditions as there may be need. Students with or without financial need are invited to apply. A Danforth Fellow is allowed to carry other scholarship appointment, such as Fulbright, Woodrow Wilson, G.E.B., etc.

All Danforth Fellows will participate in the annual Danforth Foundation conference on Teaching, to be held at Camp Miniwanca in Michigan next September. The qualifications of the candidate as listed in the announcement from the Foundation are:

Evidence of superior intellectual ability in college record.

Good record of health and emotional stability.

Outgoing personality and the concern for people, essential for successful teaching.

Choice of vocation of teaching, as form of Christian Service.

Deep religious convictions and growing religious perspectives. (The Foundation is looking for candidates who are seriously examining their own religious life, and are seeking a maturing faith and a social outreach.)

Each institution is asked to limit its nominations to two, or at the most three. Any student wishing further information should get in touch with Mr. Hebert, Counseling and Placement Bureau, Old Hall 115.

Modern College Student More Serious Than Father

What has happened to the flag-waving, raccoon coat-wearing rah rah college man of the past?

Where is that display of spirit that used to be seen at sports events? Why are screaming "Joe Colleges" no longer seen charging down Main Street in painted "hot Rods."

The sad (?) truth of the matter is that they are no more; and for good reason.

The fellow just out of high school who used to be riding along on a breeze on Dad's checkbook is now working his way through college, in every sense of the word. Or, if it does happen that "Uncle Sam" is paying the bills, then he is well past the frivolous age and is devoting his precious time to the serious business of getting his education and preparing for the "cold cruel world."

Statistics taken at St. Michael's College earlier this year that slightly over 50% of the students were then making plans to take part-time employment during the summer. The most popular line of work was plain labor.

not to receive a taxable income. On this score Canadian students have an advantage because up there a yearly income does not become taxable until it reaches $1000.

It is easy to see, then, why the college man of today may seem to lack the spirit of the "Joe College" of yesteryear. He is too busy taking care of seeing that he has the money to get through his education-without worrying about the frills. When they are spending their own hard-earned money, they think twice about throwing it away.

During the summer of 1952, statistics showed that over 85% of our Michaelmen earned part or all of the expenses which they would encounter during this academic year.

About 35% of those questioned earned between $600 and $1000. The majority of the remainder earned over $200.

Approximately 25% of those who filled out questionnaires said that they were paying more than half of their educational expenses. The rest pay between one quarter and one half. More than 35% said that they absolutely had to work to help their family pay their way.

These figures do not take into account, however, the large number of vets on campus who are on the GI Bill. Nor do the statistics include the jobs held during the school year.

Furthermore, a lot quit their summer jobs when their earnings reach $599. so as not to receive a taxable in-

Few Vets Left On '53 Cagers

Coach George "Doc" Jacobs faces almost a complete rebuilding job this season on his 1952-'53 Vermont Cottist hoop squad. This week, Jacobs made his first cut in the ranks of the basketball candidates, reducing the number from about 50 to 21 men.

Of these only three have previous experience on the varsity, Bob Young, Russ Czmire and Bob Bolster. Young, a sophomore, compiled 307 points in the 1952-'53 campaign to lead the Knights in scoring. In the Green Mountain Conference, Young finished second with 95 points in six contests. Czmire, as sixth man on the varsity last year, missed but two games and tallied 76 markers. Bolster saw action in eight games and hit for 21 points.

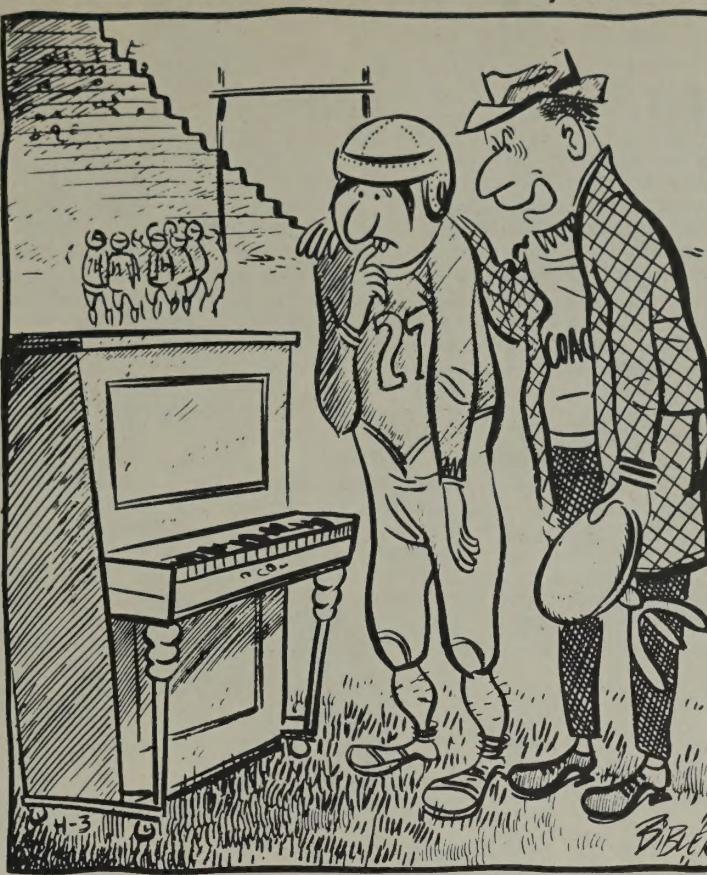

Jacobs and his assistant Sal Lombardo, however have picked up the services of seven men up from last year's freshman hoopsters. They are Chris Bogiages, Bill Leuchten, Denny Taber, Russ Gangi, Ray Garland, Frank Keane and Steve O'Brien.

Among the new freshmen that the Knights' mentor has thus far retained are John Wegrynski, Dick deCastro, George Smith, Dick Underwood, Tom Lemanowicz, Bernie Cieplicki, Hugh Caldwell, Walt Bellcourt and Hank Berry.

KNIGHTS EDGE U.B. 20-19

St. Michael's gridders held on to a slim one point margin throughout the last half to edge the University of Bridgeport 20-19 at Candleelite Stadium.

Quarterback John Barbati paced the Knights to their second win by passing to Gallagher for one TD, scoring another himself and passing to Crotty for the game winning extra point. Freshman fullback Pete Calabrese picked up St. Michael's final touchdown plunging over from the one.

The Knights racked up their first score on their second play from scrimmage in the opening period. Bridgeport elected to receive the kickoff but was forced to punt several plays later. Starting from their own 39, Coach George "Doc" Jacobs charges moved up five yards on an end run by Don Gallagher. At this point Barbati cut loose a pass which the fleet-footed Gallagher pulled down on UB's 35 yard line and he sprinted the rest of the way to the end zone. Ted Bergeron's

Intramurals

With a record of five victories and only one loss, St. Leo's hall dominates the basketball intramural league this week. In their last outing, St. Leo's trounced St. James 41-20. Denny Taber paced the winners with 12 markers, while Bob Brault threw in 7 for St. James.

Several nights later, the St. James boys bounced right back to hand Old Hall III their second loss of the season 40-25. The win knocked Old Hall out of second place and moved St. James into a tie for third. Bill Noonan tallied 12 for St. James with Bernie Cieplicki and Ron Richards sharing the scoring honors for the loser.

Jim Schaefer garnered twenty points to lead St. William's to a 44-36 win over Winooski Off Campus Squad. The seniors had to come from behind several times during the contest to gain the win. John Leonard's 10 tallies was high for Winooski.

PAUL LANDRY

PROFILES

CARMINE PARRELLA

Paul Landry, a 5'9" 150 lb. halfback makes his home in Concord, New Hampshire. He attended St. John's High in Concord, where he played three years of varsity football and baseball. In his senior year, Paul was named to the All New Hampshire squad for his gridiron achievements.

A scatback on the undefeated frosh team of 1950, Landry tallied seven times in the three games to lead the squad in scoring. With the varsity since sophomore year, "Mouse" saw mostly defensive action. At the end of last season, however, he started carrying the ball and scored twice. One TD came on a sensational 45 yard run down the sidelines in which he somehow or other shook loose about six would-be tacklers. This fall, Paul has been handicapped consistently by cartilage trouble in both knees, which has confined him to a reserve role.

With BS in Accounting and Business coming up in June, Paul hopes to eventually become a CPA. Besides his football prowess, Landry is a Squadron Adjutant in the ROTC, a member of the Arnold Air Society, holds the DMS and is this year's chairman of the Military Ball. Then to top it off, he's been on the Student Council all four years.

A native of Watertown, Massachusetts, 5'8" 160 lb. Carmine Parrella has been carrying from halfback since his Watertown High School days. Because of his speed, "Sas" Parrella first got notation at Watertown as a Track star. After three years with the varsity football squad, Parrella moved his gear to St. Michael's where he took up duties at one of the halfback slots for the freshmen.

With the two platoon system, "Sas" moved right into a reserve berth on offense as a sophomore. Last fall he became a starting member of the Knights' eleven and played the whole season at right half. About midway through the year he fractured his wrist, but played anyway. This season, Carmine again gained a starting role and is second man on the squad in rushing, and scoring.

A Flight Leader in the ROTC program, holding the rank of Second Lieutenant, Carmine has a DMS and is in the Arnold Air Society. Upon graduation in June, he will aim at the Intelligence Department of the Air Force. Carmine is also Vice-president of the Sociology Club and has been a Dean's list student for four years.

This Saturday finds the Purple Knights of St. Michael's College once again traveling down to Springfield, Massachusetts, this time to engage the Yellow Jackets of American International College.

Against two mutual foes, the Aces have fared much better this year than the Knights. They were able to hold Springfield to a scoreless tie and walloped Quonset Naval Base 26-6. On the other hand St. Michael's dropped a 31-20 decision to Springfield while tying the Sailors 7-7. However, comparative scores have meant little in past games between the two clubs. With the exception of the Aces' trouncing of the Knights 37-6 in 1947, there has never been more than a seven point margin in the final score in an SMC-AIC contest. In '52, the Yellow Jackets edged the Purple Knights 13-7 to pick up a 3-2-1 lead in the series thus far.

SALVUCCI GONE

American International bases their offense around hard-running fullback Al Laude, who starred in last year's game. His running has earned him the nickname "Big Train." Although the Aces lost a dozen lettermen from last year's club, including All New England Halfback, Gayton Salvucci, Coach Henry Butova still has a nucleus of seventeen returnees. They include Co-captain John Doldorian, tackle, Ken Baldacci, halfback, end Ralph Cerrato and center Vin Ciancotti, all sixty minute men this season. Injuries have plagued Coach Butova since the start of the season but according to recent releases the full squad will be ready for the Michaelmen. Their full record includes victories over Colby, New Britain and Quonset and their only loss was to a strong Northeastern squad 24-0.

KNIGHTS INJURED

Injuries are also a major worry to Coach George "Doc" Jacobs. Dave Foley, center, injured in the Springfield game, missed the Bridgeport trip and is again only a doubtful starter. Others on the ailing list include end John Pierie, halfback Jim McKenna and center Bob Caprio. However it is expected that all three will see some action Saturday. Fullback Ted Bergeron, dogged by injuries all season should be ready, but freshman Pete Calabrese is on hand just in case. The remainder of the backfield, Gallagher, Parrella and Barbati will be out to put an end to the second-halfitis which has hampered the Knights attack all season and was especially evident in the Springfield and Bridgeport games.

MICHAELMEN TAKE GOLF TOURNAMENT

First place in all three flights of the Williston Country Club Golf Tournament was captured by St. Michael's men this fall. Pro Herbert of the Class of '40 and a star athlete at the Hilltop walked off with the first division, while Fathers Sullivan and Lanoue of the SMC faculty took the second and third flights respectively.

About 49 competitors entered the tourney, which was held on the nine hole Williston course. Flights were broken up according to handicap, with each man playing 18 holes in the opening round.

religious matters to Henry III, king of England who flouted the Magna Carta.

The archbishop chose exile rather than capitulate and he went to France, where he died November 16, 1840. He was born at Abingdon, near Oxford, England in 1180 and became one of England's most famous preachers. He was chosen by Gregory IX to preach the Crusades in England. He was canonized only six years after he died.

KNIGHTS EDGE

placekick split the uprights and St. Michael's pulled ahead 7-0. Before the first quarter ended, Bridgeport had tied it up on a pass from quarterback Giansello to end Glatkowski, and a placekick by Johnson.

UB scored again at the start of the second period much in the same manner as they had before. Giansello hit Cirone several times to put the ball deep in St. Michael's territory and then passed to Glatkowski for the touchdown. Only this time the bid for the extra point was no good.

Once again, Barbati was the spark that ignited the Knights offense. A 53 yard toss to Pete Calabrese planted the pigskin on the UB nine yard stripe. Gallagher rushed to the one and Barbati carried over for the TD. His pass to end Paul Crotty in the end zone gave At. Michael's a 14-13 margin.

Before halftime, the Michaelmen drove from their own 41 across the goal line for their final tally of the day. Gallagher, Parrella, Calabrese and Barbati all smashed the Bridgeport defenses for decent gains and three first downs. Calabrese capped the drive, scoring from the one. His attempt to tie the score after Halfback Bob Perez and crossed the SMC goal in the opening minutes of the third stanza. Walt Johnson, the Bridgeport fullback stepped up to kick the extra point, but saw it hit the cross bar of the M goal posts a fall under. The Knights held on for the remainder of the contest to merit the win.

NEW BISHOP

Cushing, archbishop of Boston.

Bishop Flanagan will be installed at St. Patrick's Cathedral in Norwich on December 9, by the Most Rev. Henry J. O'Brien, archbishop of Hartford. Archbishop O'Brien who was recently named by Pope Pius XII as head of the new Hartford archdiocese, will also preach the sermon. He is also an honorary alumnus of St. Michael's.

The Hartford archdiocese will embrace the suffragan dioceses of Norwich, Bridgeport and Providence. There are some 120,000 Catholics in the Norwich diocese.

Most VA Patients Have Service Contracted Malady

About five out of every ten patients being treated in Veterans Administration hospitals have service-connected disabilities, the latest statistics of the VA showed this week.

VA explained that half its patients are presently being treated for service-connected disabilities, or are veterans with service-connected conditions who are being treated for something else.

Four of the remaining five veterans either have long-term ailments or are pretty close to being destitute, it was revealed. This group includes veterans with tuberculosis, mental illnesses, chronic disabilities of other types, and veterans who are on VA's pension rolls, VA said.

A veteran on VA pension rolls must have an annual income of less than $1400 if he has no dependents, or $2700 if he has dependents.

The remaining one out of ten veteran-patients has signed a statement that he could not afford hospitalization elsewhere, and the law entitles him to a VA hospital bed if there is no available.

-QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS-

Q-- I took a physical examination for insurance purposes, and was rated as totally and permanently disabled. Will VA accept this rating, if I apply for a pension?

A-- No. Your insurance rating has no effect on your rating for a pension. You must meet the specific requirements set up for eligibility for a pension.

Q-- I have a service-connected disability which has been rated zero percent by the VA. My ailment is bothering me, and I think I might be entitled to compensation payments. How do I go about applying?

A-- You should present evidence to the VA and request a review of your rating.
